Committee Updates:

--Conservation—Bob C.—

- South Fork Wilson-McKissack Canal Salvage on September 12th, data collection. Collected 220 White Fish, 138 Brown Trout
- No RAC money for TU this year. There's a good chance this money will be going away in the foreseeable future.

--Fundraising—Duane A

- Open for any suggestions for raising funds for WY Council Meeting? Potential ideas are raffling Fly rod and net? Let Duane know
- The Humble Fly donated a TFO Rod to the Chapter

--Membership —Chris Nielsen & Craig Sax—Craig should be ready to take over sometime within the next week or so.

--News Letter—Rich H—Send any fishing pictures you have next week. SEND YOUR PICTURES.

--Web Master—Lorna—N/A

--SYC—Cathy Sweet

- Dave in Billings last Tuesday. The Magic City Fly Casters committed $3,000 to the SYC fund. They were also involved in a fly board fundraiser and sold wristbands for their Chapter. This may be something we consider.

New Business—

Fall Work Day—8:30 am Saturday, September 29th. Meet at the Cooper Lane Fishing Access, north of the corner of 41st Street and Pat O'Hara Drive on the dirt road. Wear sturdy boots and bring gloves. Tools will be provided at the site by the BLM. Left over materials from the Paul Stock Improvement will be provided by the Chapter. For more information contact Dave Sweet.

Greg trying to contact NWC about having a display for the Chapter for a Club Day at the College.

Doc Moore reported that the woman the Chapter sponsored for Casting for Recovery was very appreciative of the sponsorship. Things went very well for them.
